

Refund of Swiss Value-Added Tax

On leaving Switzerland, foreign visitors are entitled to claim a VAT refund on their purchases at Zurich Airport. The minimum purchase value per sales outlet is CHF 300.00 incl. VAT. There is no tax exemption for smaller purchases. To reclaim VAT, please ask for a VAT form in the sales outlet. The goods must be presented to customs, together with the relevant receipts, within 30 days.

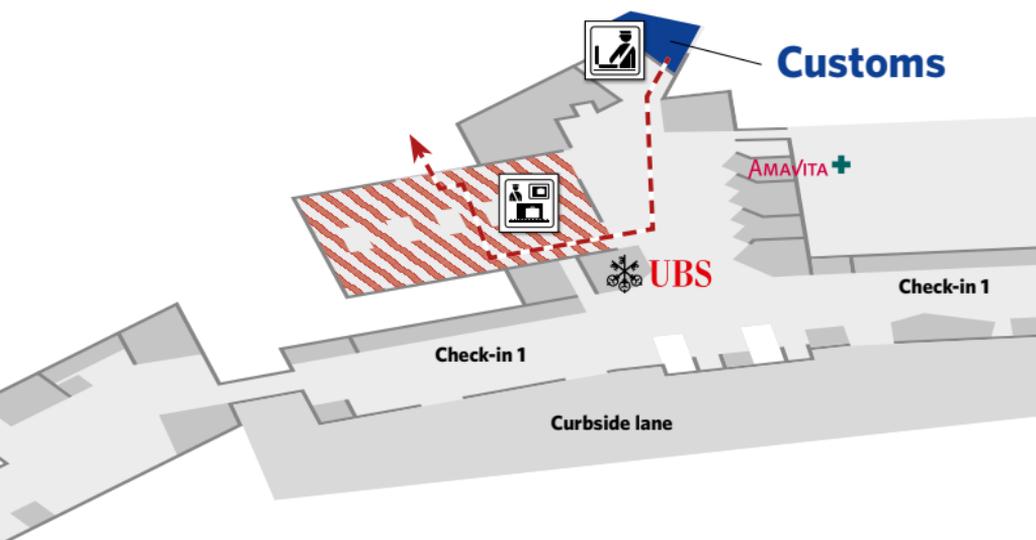

What to do:

1. GET EXPORT STAMP AT CUSTOMS

Goods in check-in luggage:

If you are carrying the goods you have purchased in your check-in luggage, please first check in and then take the piece of luggage containing the goods you have purchased to the customs office landside. The customs office is in Check-in 1, opposite boarding-pass control. The customs officer is responsible for ensuring that your luggage arrives at your plane. He stamps the VAT form and has the right to check the goods.

Location: Check-in 1

Zurich Airport

Goods in hand luggage:

If possible, carry your purchased goods in your hand luggage. Proceed through boarding-pass control and security to the customs office airside. Here you need to have your VAT form stamped for the goods you purchased in Switzerland.

Location: Airside Center (passenger area), level 1

2. HAVE THE VAT REFUNDED

Global Blue: Present your stamped Global Blue Tax Free form at the Global Blue Refund Point. You will receive your VAT refund in cash or can have it transferred to your credit card.
